Lenten potluck guidelines: no meat, fish or dairy. Shellfish is permitted.

FROM THE KITCHEN VOLUNTEERS: Please remember to clean your tray (or any other trays you take into the kitchen) after meals. The wipes and new placemats are on the cart in the kitchen. Thank you to those who stay to help clean up after meals, especially after the Liturgy of Presanctified Gifts. Please do not leave any food or crumbs around in the kitchen or any of the rooms to avoid attracting ants.

ALMSGIVING DURING LENT...REMEMBER THE POOR....Besides, our basket for St. Martin's under the Literature Table, please take a look at the International Orthodox Christian Charities and the work they do all over the world(www.iocc.org). We have some pre-address donation envelopes for them on the Literature Table or you can donate on-line.

Pre-paid Orders for KULICH & Paska Cheese for PASCHA are being taken by Luba

Thome. Forms are on the Literature Table with price information, order deadline and delivery date. Examples of the can size for the kulich are also on the Literature Table. This is a fundraiser for the parish.

FOR WEDNESDAY—AGAPE MEAL AFTER THE LITURGY OF PRESANCTIFIED GIFTS. DON'T LIKE TO COOK OR CAN'T COOK? Then we suggest: hummous, salad, fruit, nuts, stuffed grape leaves, raw veggies, Zatarain's rice & beans is easy to fix, pre-cooked shrimp, chips (to go with the salsa we already have), lent-safe cookies.

30 March 2008 Third Sunday of Lent Veneration of the Cross

Welcome Visitors! Christ Is In Our Midst!

*We are honored you are visiting today. * Liturgy Books may be found on the Candle Table at the back of the church. * We invite you to fill out a Visitor's Card, also on the Candle Table & place it in one of the Collection Baskets there. * We do not take up a Collection during our services but rather ask you to place donations in one of the baskets on the Candle Table. * While only Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion, everyone is welcome to come forward at the end of Liturgy to receive a blessing from our priest and to take the blessed bread.. * It is the Orthodox practice to stand during services as a sign of reverence for the Lord but if you need to sit, please do so. Use of chairs is shared. If you are able, we particularly try to stand during the processions with the Gospel and the Gifts, during the Readings, the Creed, during the preparation of the Holy Eucharist, the Lord's Prayer and reception of Communion. * We invite you to stay after the Thanksgiving Prayers for fellowship and coffee, so that we may greet you personally, and to answer any questions you may have about our faith, our parish or today's service. * Please help yourself to the brochures and information on the Literature Table. * We hope you will visit us again.

Please send Prayer Corner names and updates along with bulletin announcements to albddxp@msn.com or call Diane P. at 792-4507

Rubrics for 3rd Sunday of Lent: Tone 3. Veneration of the Life Giving Cross Resurrection Tone Sheet and Third Sunday of Lent Sheet are on the Literature Table

NEXT SUNDAY, APRIL 6th—EXITING FROM CHURCH. The Community Center south of us is holding its annual Pride of the North Valley parade and festival next Sunday. The parade starts at 11am at El Pinto. If the front entrance is blocked when you are leaving, please use the rear exit to Second Street. If you make a left out the rear entrance onto the dirt road that runs along the fence, you can exit at the horse stables. Parishioners are also encouraged to check out the celebration at the Community Center after church.
